

I firmly believe that Congress has absolutely no right to stifle competition by attempting to limit or block XM Radio or any other satellite broadcast organization from providing weather and traffic.

I chose to subscribe to this service to deliberately avoid commercial radio and obnoxious intervention of discjockey clowns. Do not attempt to change the laws at the will of a special interest group.